

St-Anne's-on-sea Chamber of Trade

working with councils for a better tomorrow

Unfortunately, Fylde Borough Council will not be providing funding for the large display of Christmas lights this festive season. The reason for St-Anne's-on-sea having to forgo the usually charming decorations is due to financial cutbacks within Fylde Borough Council.

St-Anne's-on-sea Town Council are donating £2,000 towards the lights and celebrations for this year, saying "we, the traders, banks and other commercial operators, all want to make a success of Christmas 2008".

By raising extra funding from ourselves, this will be achieved.

Please help by sending a donation to our treasurer.
